

Report on “Elocution competition on The Valour and Values of Indian Armed Forces in 1971 War” (22nd NOVEMBER 2021)

NCC (Army) cadets of Sri Venkateswara College of Engineering, Sriperumbudur participated in this Elocution Competition on The Valour and Values of Indian Armed Forces in 1971 War.

The Program started around 1000 am, and the topic is valour and values of the Indian armed forces in 1971 war. The Speech competition was for both English and Tamil Language.

Around 1005 am the instructions were given and the Chief Guests were received. The participants were separated according to the Language either Tamil or English.

Around 1100 am the competition was started. The students who gave the best speech was selected for the next round. Cdt. K. Dillirajan, Cdt. S. Mugunthan and LCpl. P. Hari Hara Sudhan represented our college and got their certificates respectively.

Around 1300 pm the Chief Guest gave their speech followed by the next round where the winners were selected and the certificates were provided.

Around 1430 pm the program was concluded with the National Anthem.

Signature of the Capt. Dr. A. Bhaskaran
Coy Commander
NCC (ARMY) WING