Hello ma'am,

Would it be possible to have it on 18/01/2017 ? I am trying to bring one or two people who are currently working after getting placed in companies through campus placement. They would be able to provide valuable information of their work life and what students can expect if they choose that path. Those people are available only on the 18/01/2017.

The speech would not only concentrate on higher education but more on what students need to equip themselves with if they go ahead with campus placement or higher studies. The discussion would more try to give the students a better understanding about the different companies and what they would gain from working there or what they would gain from studying abroad.

As requested by Krithika Devi ma'am, the appropriate title for this topic would be "Making the right choices" or "Creating opportunities through necessary preparation"

Thank You.

Yours Sincerely,
Yeshwanth
