REPORT OF GUEST LECTURE ON WHAT NOT TO DO TO BE AN ENTREPRENEUR

Date: 23.07.2021

Time: 02.30 PM – 03.30 PM

Objectives (Maximum 50 words):

- To Create Awareness about the availability of Resources
- To Encourage Self Employment Tendencies
- To Make a Successful Entrepreneur
- To provide inspiration to students for setting up small start-ups

About the programme (Min 500 words):

On the 23rd July 2021, a guest lecture on “What not to do to be an entrepreneur” was delivered by Ms. Malini S, Vice President, Tyche Payment Solutions and Alumna of Batch 2008 - 2012.

The event was compered by Ms. Poonam, 2nd year student from the Department of Information Technology and prayer was rendered by Ms. Gayathri N R, a II year student from IT department. The welcome address was given by Ms. A. Kala, Assistant Professor, Department of Information Technology. Introduction of the Chief Guest was given by Ms. K. Kiruthika Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of Information Technology. Dr. V. Vidhya, Head of the Department delivered a whole hearted welcome to the Chief Guest and soon the session began.

The chief guest started the guest lecture by sharing the journey of establishing her own startup Tyche Payment Solutions. Her story included all the ups and downs she and her team had to face to launch their ideas. This taught the students about team building and how to handle failures with poise. Her story was truly inspiring to the listeners. She gave an idea about the most recognized sources of potential funding and financing for start-ups. She motivated the students to apply an entrepreneurial way of thinking that will allow them to identify and create business opportunities. She insisted the students to plan to become job providers from their current year of study. She explained the importance of interacting with the common people so as to promote their business plans.

The students were highly benefitted, motivated and acquired a lot of knowledge about what not to do to be an entrepreneur. The session came to an end with Dr. V. Vidhya thanking our chief guest once again and motivating students to become an entrepreneur which would turn them from job seekers to job providers. Ms. P. Sharon Femi, Assistant Professor, Department of Information Technology, delivered the vote of thanks. Further, the feedback forms were filled by the students at the end of the session.

Benefits (Maximum 50 words):

- Perceived knowledge on the strategies to become a successful Entrepreneur
- Discovered the ways to apply an entrepreneurial way of thinking that will allow them to identify and create business opportunities
- Select the most recognized sources of potential funding and financing for start-ups
